

Task Instruction:

You are required to design and develop a commerce website layout utilizing CSS Grid and media queries for responsiveness. Please ensure the website has a realistic and professional appearance, incorporating features and design elements commonly found in modern e-commerce platforms.

You are encouraged to use your own ideas and creativity to conceptualize the layout, structure, and visual aesthetics. The objective is to demonstrate your understanding of responsive design principles and layout techniques using pure CSS.